
Wanting to come to Israel

Are any of you thinking of coming to Israel?

Let us know what you'd like to do here, and maybe we can help you figure out the best way to go about it.

Hello!

My name is Josh Rubinstein. My wife, Rosemary, and I are prayerfully considering Aliyah, especially with the Supreme Court ruling this Summer (we both have a Jewish grandfather on our father's side). We are members of congregation Beth Yeshua in Sacramento California (we lead worship and the youth ministry) and we would love to know if you have any information about organizations/ministries that help Jewish believers make Aliyah...

We have two small children (Eliana - 2 and 1/2 and Eitan 10 months) and are really just interested to see if God opens up an opportunity. We want His will and know that if He wants us to be Olim - He can make it happen.

By the way, I loved the Close album! Best Messianic music that I've heard in ages. I'll probably order one soon...

Thanks,

Josh Rubinstein
